

Aligning Health IT and Health Reform:

Achieving an Information-Driven Health Care System

A Forum Hosted by:

Markle Foundation - Center for American Progress - Engelberg Center for Health Care Reform at Brookings

MEETING AGENDA

JULY 15, 2009

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM EST

LOCATION: CENTER FOR AMERICAN PROGRESS
1333 H St., NW, 10th Floor
Washington, DC

- I. Opening Remarks
Welcome; Why We Are Here
9:05 am – 9:10 am
Carol Diamond, Markle Foundation

- II. Setting the Stage: What's at Stake
9:10 am – 9:20 am
Zoe Baird, Markle Foundation

- III. Challenges and Opportunities
9:20 am – 9:40 am
David Blumenthal, Office of the National Coordinator, Department of Health and Human Services

- IV. A Vision for Information-Driven Health Care
9:40 am – 9:50 am
Todd Park, Center for American Progress

- V. Policy Pathways
9:50 am – 10:00 am
Mark McClellan, Engelberg Center for Health Care Reform at Brookings

- VI. Aligning Health IT Investments and Health Reform: Meaningful Use is Critical
10:00 am – 10:55 am
Carol Diamond, Markle Foundation - Panel Moderator

Christine Bechtel, National Partnership for Women & Families
Hunt Blair, Vermont Health Access
Steven Findlay, Consumers Union
David Lansky, Pacific Business Group on Health
Steven Waldren, American Academy of Family Physicians

Discussion and Q&A

- VII. Closing
10:55 am – 11:00 am
Todd Park, Center for American Progress